Application for Disability Accommodations Disability Accommodation Form (2011)

Program for the Assessment of Veterinary Education Equivalence (PAVE)

---

The following guidelines are designed to ensure equitable and fair treatment for candidates with documented need for reasonable accommodations in taking the PAVE Qualifying Examination (QE).

Reasonable accommodations are made for candidates whose disabilities will otherwise place them at an unfair disadvantage in the examination. Accommodations are considered only to the extent necessary to give candidates with disabilities a fair and equal opportunity to demonstrate their mastery of skills and attainment of knowledge in the examination.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) defines a person with a disability as “any person who (a) have a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of such person’s major life activities, (b) has a record of such impairments, or (c) is regarded as having such an impairment.”

Individuals meeting the above definition may be considered disabled and eligible for reasonable accommodations on the QE. A temporary disability (e.g, a broken arm) is not considered a disabling condition under the ADA. Nevertheless, candidates having a temporary disability that may hinder their test performance may request a courtesy adjustment for the examination.

The Disability Accommodation Form (2011) is to help the AAVSB and NBVME determine (1) whether you are a qualified disabled individual under federal law and (2) whether the accommodation you are requesting is reasonable. Consideration of all requests will be made under applicable laws, including the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Part I: The information requested on Part I of the form is self-explanatory. You are not required to furnish your Social Security number, but this information would be most helpful in identifying you and relating Disability Accommodation Form (2011) to other parts of your PAVE application.

Part II: Part II of Disability Accommodation Form (2011) should be completed by your health practitioner or other appropriate professional and signed and dated where indicated.

SUBMISSION OF THE FORMS: The QE is administered by the National Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners (NBVME). This form must be submitted to AAVSB before the NBVME can make arrangements for any examination accommodations requested. Disability Accommodation Form (2011) parts I and II should accompany the PAVE online application.

Candidates requesting accommodations must provide (at their own expense) written documentation that specifies the extent to which routine testing procedures need to be modified to prevent the candidate’s disability from interfering with the opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge, skills, or abilities on the QE.

Candidates must provide a report from a physician or other licensed professional health service provider who has diagnosed and/or treated the disability. The report must state a specific diagnosis of the disability; must be current (generally within the past three years); must describe the specific diagnostic criteria and/or diagnostic tests used, including date(s) of evaluation, test results and a detailed interpretation of the test results; must recommend reasonable testing accommodations; and must provide explanations of how and why the recommended accommodations are justified and necessitated by the candidate’s disability. If no prior accommodations have been provided, the report should include an explanation as to why no accommodations were given in the past and why accommodations are needed now.

The cover letter from the candidate, the Disability Accommodation Form (2011), and supporting documentation should be provided to the AAVSB office by the posted application deadline date. All submitted documentation will be treated confidentially by AAVSB and NBVME. If you have any questions, please contact the AAVSB office.

A submitted Disability Accommodation Form (2011) will remain valid for one year from the date when executed by the applicant. A valid Disability Accommodation Form (2011) should be considered for any examination occurring within this one-year period provided the candidate makes a request for consideration prior to the examination date. Forms not fully completed will be returned to the applicant.

Under any circumstances, it is recommended that you maintain a copy of this form for your records. Questions may be directed to the AAVSB at 877.698.8482. PLEASE SUBMIT PARTS I AND II OF THE DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION FORM (2011) AT THE SAME TIME.
